Home stretch

In Presidio Heights, the decorating district gets a makeover.

The new home-decor stores that have popped up on several blocks of Sacramento Street are a tad more casual than the pick-a-Louis style once so prevalent in these parts. They're alluring on their own, but if you need another draw, neighborhood favorite Spruce is open for lunch on weekdays. So settle in for a house-cured pastrami sandwich and make a day of it. $$; 3640 Sacramento St.; sprucesf.com.
